G.O. 110.—Reviews.

(Specially issued, 10th April 1992)

It is very gratifying to the Field-Marshal Commanding in Chief, upon each fresh occasion when His Royal Highness has an opportunity of reviewing large bodies of Volunteers, to witness, on the part of all ranks, greater steadiness under arms and an increased attention to drill. Upwards of 29/000 Volunteers took part the day soperations, and the manner in which these were carried out reflects great credit upon all concerns the days operations, and the manner in which these were carried out reflects great credit upon all concerns. The soldierlike bearing of the men, their prompt obelience to their Officers, and the scene with which the movements were effected were most satisfactory. The good conduct of the Volunteers on the march from Peers, field, and of those who for the last two days have been quartered in and around Portsmouth, does homen to the value great national force to which they belong. It has afforded Field-Marshal His send Highness can High less the Prince Edward of Saxe-Weithar for the excellence of his arrangements, which conduced so much to the success of these operations, and His Regular Forces who have given their assistance upon the efficiency with which they performed their respective duties.

6.0. 113.—Army Schools.

U. 113.—Army Schools.

I. Is frize, the appointments of Detachment Schoolmistress, Pupil Teacher, and Monitress, will be vested in the leads of Commanding Officers, who will be guided by the following considerations in making them:—

3. That they are in strict conformity with the Army School Regulations, and Royal Warrants.

3. Itst first appointments are always to be made on the lowest rate of pay, and that no increase is to be granted without the sanction of the Director-General of Military Education.

3. Itst five counter-signature of the Inspector of the District, or, on Foreign Stations, of the Local Inspector, or of the Examining Officer, is to be affixed to the nomination, as a guarantee that the candidate is educationally qualified for the post she is to fill.

3. Candidates for the appointment of Pupil Teacher and Detachment Schoolmistress will be examined on papers set by the Local Inspector, or Sub-Inspector of the District, and worked in the presence of a Superintending Officer, as in the case of candidates for certificates. On Foreign Stations, where there is no Local Inspector, the questions will be set by, and worked in presence of a Regimental Officer, specially selected for this care. aty.

TIL. The fitness of Candidates for the appointment of Monitress will be determined by the last Examination Schedule of the School to which they belong. Should the schedule not furnish the required information, the Candidates must be examined in the subjects laid down for the IVth Standard.

IV. The orditions of qualification for these spopintments are laid down in the Army School Regulations.

V. All apprintments will be entered on D.G.M.E. Form 37, which will be countersigned by the Commanding Officer attained to the Monthly School Report, and transmitted with it for the information of the DirectorGeneral of Mittary Education.

6.0. 114.-Army Signalling.

The following will be inserted after para. 147, Sec. VII., "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1470. All communications by signal between Her Majesty's land forces and the Royal Navy will be conducted by speling the works according to the "Morse" alphabet, as described in the "Army and Navy Signal Book" as the "Massai of Instruction in Army Signalling."

G.O. 115.—Attestations.

In para. II, Sec. XXII., "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1881," opposite Artillery, omit. To Officer in charge of Regimental Records at Woolwich" and rest of the sentence, and insert "To Doputy Adutant-General, Royal Artillery, Record Office, Woolwich."

6.0. 116.—Barracks.

After para, 1, Sec. XV., "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1881," add new para.:—
Is. Under ordinary circumstances a party of one Officer, one non-commissioned officer, and three rank and file will be sufficient to take over barracks for a regiment or battation, but in no case should more than one man per trop or company be told off for this duty. This party should travel in advance of the corps, and should be traccompanied by  $\sigma ny$  coldiers' families. A party of the same strength should be left behind to give over the barracks. When the corps proceeds by long sea route between England and Ireland, there may be occasions on which the same party may perform both duties.

G.O. 117.—Casualty Book.

Para, 34, Sec. XXII., "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1831," will be amended as follows:—Line 5—craze: "abroad." Prove last four lines from "certified copies."

G.O. 118.—Clothing.

I Officers commanding companies will superintended the fitting of the ankle boots. As they are issued in sites, and as there is often a slight difference in sizes with the same number, they require to be very carefully

II. As soon as they have been fitted, they are to be worn regularly till the Officer commanding the company is when ankle boots are repaired, the standard pattern for the shape of the boot is not to be deviated from the practice of altering them, while being mended, into smort boots with high heels and pointed toes is forblacked. His Royal Highness the Field-Marshal Commanding in Chief will hold Commanding Officers responsible that this order is strictly attended to.

6.0. 119.-Clothing.

I. His Royal Highness the Field-Marshal Commanding in Chief observes that his orders about the size and lifting of the forage caps are not attended to. The glengarries are often altered regimentally. The forage caps are in many cases so small that they hardly cover any part of the head.

II. From the date of the publication of this order, His Royal Highness will hold Officers commanding regiments personally responsible that the caps worn by their men are of the authorised pattern, and of a sufficiently large are to afford proper protection to the head.

III. His Royal Highness also expects General Officers Commanding Districts to see that these orders are stended to, and that they will bring to his notice any instances where they are disregarded.

ENT'S CHRONOMETERS, WATCHES, and CLOCKS have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various scientific persons:—

E ASTRONOMER ROYAL, (Sir G. B. AIRY,) in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August 1870) on the forty Chronometers entered for annual competition, says of M. F. DERT'S Chronometer—

IIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL."

The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1820 on the celebrated trial, by order of The Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during pearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says:

Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year wheelths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburgh, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition. in 1843, says:

"The DENT CHEONOMETERS have held FIRST RANK in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, THE MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.
"M. STRUYE."

ት ከ Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest Order of Merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun,

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1859 has never been affected by travelling or riding; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch.

"W. G. ARMSTRONG.

- DENT'S CHRONOMETERS, WATCHES, and CLOCKS have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various scientific persons:—
- THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL, (Sir G. B. AIRY,) in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August 1870) on the forty Chronometers entered for annual competition, says of M. F. DENT'S Chronometer—
  - "THIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL"

N.B.—The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1829 on the celebrated public trial, by order of The Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says:

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year 6-54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburgh, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition, in 1843, says:

"The DENT CHRONOMETEES have held first rank in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, THE MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.

"M. STRUVE."

• By Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest Order of Merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

SIR WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun,

"9, HYDE PARK STREET, W., 14th November 1861.

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1859 has never been affected by travelling or riding; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch.

"W. G. ARMSTRONG.

"Mr. M. F. DENT, 33. Cockspur Street, Charing Cross."
